

Conduction of Activities Integrating Cross Cutting Issues In Curriculum

1. Name of Event: Painting Competition on 'Rain water harvesting'

Objectives: To inculcate the students about the importance and protection of Environment

Date: 21/08/2019

Cross cutting issue covered: Environment and Sustainability

Painting Competition arranged on the theme of "Rain Water Harvesting" under auspices of Equal opportunity cell, CHARUSAT with the aim to inculcate the student about saving water that utilize to increase crop production and reduces the use of ground water thus increasing its levels.

2. Name of Event: Self-Medication Awareness Campaign

Objectives: To aware the people in nearby rural areas about the importance of cleanliness and risks of Self-Medication.

Date: 25/09/2019

Cross cutting issue covered: Professional ethics, Human values

The objective of the programme was to aware the village people about the avoid inappropriate use of Self-Medication. The Volunteers of WDC of Ramanbhai Patel College of Pharmacy performed various activities such as skit performance and explanation to village people regarding safe use of drugs through banner display in rally.

3. Name of Event: Awareness Camp on Health and Hygiene

Objectives: To inculcate the benefits of cleanliness amongst students and residents of nearby village

Date: 25/09/2019

Cross cutting issue covered: Human values

The main aim of this programme was to aware the village people about the health, hygiene and cleanliness. During this event total fifty student volunteers (NSS unit) of RPCP enthusiastically joined the rally and distributed health and hygiene kits and pamphlets to village people and aware them about it.

4. Name of Event: Anemia Detection and Awareness Campaigning

Objectives: To make aware and diagnose the woman suffering from anaemia & advice about healthy diet and pamphlet distribution

Date: 05-03-2020

Cross cutting issue covered: Professional ethics, Human values

Students of B. Pharm and M. Pharm Participated in Awareness rally at Malataj Village. Additionally, with faculty members of RPCP. Total 62 women of the village were benefited through anemia detection activity. Moreover, some of the females were identified with the low hemoglobin level, for this reason, coordinators advised them to consult physician and visit CHARUSAT hospital.

5 Name of Event: “Ethical Issues in Human Research”

Date of Organized: 3/10/2015

Objective: Interactive learning forum that address the ethical and practical challenges in developing, reviewing, conducting, and overseeing human research. The course integrated the crosscutting issue related to professional ethics.

6 Name of Event: “National workshop on Ethical Issues in Human Research”

Date of Organized: 6/04/2018 to 7/04/2018

Objective: Interactive learning forum that address the ethical and practical challenges in developing, reviewing, conducting, and overseeing human research. The workshop has integrated the crosscutting issue related to ethics.

7. Name of Event: “World Osteoporosis Day - Health Awareness Camp

Date of Organized: 22/10/2018

Objective: To increase awareness and to screen participants for osteoporosis

Date of Organized: 8/03/2017

9. Name of Event: Physical activity for life seminar on World Physiotherapy day

Date of Organized: 8/09/2017

Objective: To increase awareness amongst school going children and staff about regular Physical activity and its impact on health.

10. Name of Event: Community Physiotherapy and Public Health

Date of Organized: 27/02/2017

Objective: To increase awareness amongst community about physiotherapy and to screen community based population for integrating the crosscutting issue related to human values

11. Name of Event: Visit to Dethali Village under SDG Lab

Date: 19/03/2019

Objective: SDG Handprint Lab students of batch 2019 visited Dethali village in Matar Taluka, Kheda District for baseline data collection about the selected SDG target for environmental and sustainability

