CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS OF GOVERNING BODY/ BOARD OF MANAGEMENT:

CHARUSAT has constituted the Board of Management (BOM) and Governing Body (GB) and has conferred upon it certain powers and authorities as per the statutes approved by the Government of Gujarat.

The below listed code of conduct is being discussed / communicated to newly appointed members.

All members have a moral duty to act in the best interests of the University. It is desirable from all the members of Board of Management (BOM) and Governing Body (GB) that all of their actions be seen to be founded on the principle of ethical community leadership.

Accordingly, during his/her term of office, each Member:

- shall conduct himself /herself befitting the role as a member of Governing Body/Board of Management of a University.
- shall carry out his/her functions with honesty, integrity, transparency and independence fulfilling the best interests of the University;
- shall uphold the confidentiality of information received in the performance of duties and /or during the deliberations of the body, during and after his/her tenure comes to an end.
- shall not make use of any confidential information obtained as a Member to derive any direct/indirect benefit for himself/herself or that of any contacts.
- shall respect the authority of the body (GB/BOM) and its decisions once made;
- shall declare any real or apparent conflict of interest as soon as he/she becomes aware of it;
- shall not assist any person or any organization in its dealings with the University when such intervention may result in real or apparent preferential treatment to that person or organization by the University;
- shall play active role for the development of CHARUSAT and provide honorary services for the same.
